

COVID-19

Safe PPE

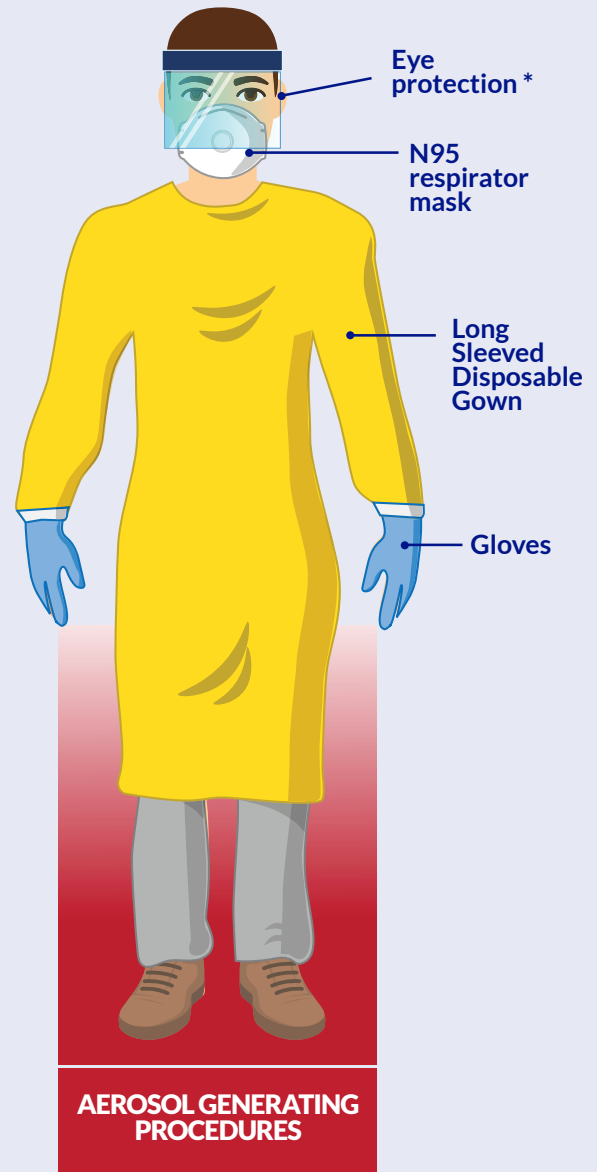

Care of patients with respiratory symptoms/suspected/confirmed COVID-19

Hand Hygiene First in All Cases

Unlikely to provide opportunities for the transfer of virus/other pathogens to the hands and clothing.

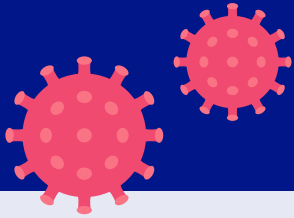

Increased risk for transfer of virus and other pathogens to the hands and clothing.

Also if there is a risk of an unplanned aerosol generating procedure.

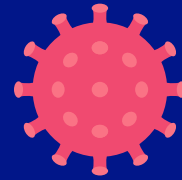

Stay informed on the latest developments about COVID-19 by visiting the Government of Bermuda's website coronavirus.gov.bm

COVID-19

Safe PPE

Care of patients with respiratory symptoms/suspected/confirmed COVID-19

Hand Hygiene First in All Cases

Low Contact: Unlikely to provide opportunities for the transfer of virus/other pathogens to the hands and clothing

- Eye Protection *
- Eye protection to be worn on risk assessment
- Surgical facemask
- Disposable plastic apron
- Gloves

High contact: Increase risk for transfer of virus and other pathogens to the hands and clothing

- Eye Protection*
- Eye protection to be worn on risk assessment

- Surgical facemask
- Long sleeved disposable gown
- Gloves

Aerosol Generating Procedures: Also if there is a risk of an unplanned aerosol generating procedure.

- Eye Protection
- N95 respirator mask
- Long Sleeved Disposable Gown
- Gloves

