5 STARS	Owner/ Operator	STAR RATING	Licensing Day Care Centres have a responsibility to the greater community to demonstrate compliance according to the licensing requirements to secure, maintain, and display valid licences on their premises in a prominent place.	PERSONNEL Qualified providers are better able to prevent, recognize, and correct health and safety problems and support appropriate child development.	STAFF The operator of a day care centre shall maintain at the centre a file on the qualifications of all persons employed at the centre and that file shall be made available for the Officer upon request.	CHILDREN FILE'S The operator of a day care centre shall maintain at the centre a file on the children in care.	LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT Owner/operators are responsible for implementing policies, procedures, and ensuring their roles & responsibilities, and must share & confirm parent receipt.	SUPERVISION Adequate Supervision is basic to safety, and prevention of injury. Providers must directly supervise children by clear sight lines and within hearing distance at all times.	SAFETY The provider should ensure premises where care is provided, its furnishing, equipment and materials, that are accessible to the children are kept in a clean, safe condition and is free from	SANITATION Safe sanitation practices are designed to prevent or reduce the spread of disease and keep children and staff healthy and safe.	HEALTH Centres provide safe and healthy environments for staff, children and visitors in accordance with requirements under legislation.	OUTSIDE PLAY AREA Children should be provided with opportunities to use their entire bodies in play. As a result, the registered premises must have access to an outdoor play area for the healthy development of the children.	LEARNING ENVIRONMENT & MATERIALS When children know what to expect their stress levels decrease while confidence and independence levels increase. Providers know that predictable and safe environments with established routines and age appropriate materials set the stage for learning, and ultimately support children's development.	CAREGIVER COMPETENCIES Providers should be warm and responsive with the ability to consistently model appropriate behaviour.	INFANTS AND YOUNG TODDLERS (3-18 mos.) Providers who work with Infants and Toddlers know that secure and healthy attachments combined with opportunities to explore through their senses promotes healthy brain development..	DEVELOPMENTAL ACTIVITIES Children learn best when learning is play based and providers build on a child's natural curiosity. Providers should regularly promote learning and development in each of the following domains Social Emotional, Motor, Cognition, Language, and Independence/Self Care.	PARENT/FAMILY ENGAGEMENT When there is a strong connection between home and school, children benefit. Providers know that this partnership is critical to the development of the whole child and will communicate regularly with parents about their observations and/or concerns.
