Questions and Responses to Questions

Question 1:	Annex D - Q1 Will a business operating in the United States but owned by a Bermudian at 50% be considered a Bermudian Owned Business?
Answer 1:	A business operating in the United States with 50% Bermudian ownership is not legally considered a Bermudian owned business. To be considered Bermudian owned, the Companies Act 1981 requires at least 60% Bermudian ownership.

Question 2:	Annex B - Will the capital items and consumables to be imported be duty-free? If not please confirm what the rates are.
Answer 2:	The items to be imported are not exempt from duty. The duty would expected to be 25% but should be confirmed against the Bermuda Customs Tariff 2026.

Question 3:	Appendix D - RFP Particulars. Training - How many operators are expected to be trained?
Answer 3:	The number of operators to be trained are seven (7),
