Name of Public Authority: Bermuda Tourism Authority

Introduction:

- The general purpose of the Public Access to Information Act 2010;

  Under section 2 of the Public Access to Information Act 2012, the purpose of the Act is to-
  (a) give the public the right to obtain access to information held by public authorities to the greatest extent possible, subject to exceptions that are in the public interest or for the protection of the rights of others;
  (b) increase transparency, and eliminate unnecessary secrecy, with regard to information held by public authorities;
  (c) increase the accountability of public authorities;
  (d) inform the public about the activities of public authorities, including the manner in which they make decisions; and
  (e) Have more information placed in the public domain as a matter of routine.

- The reason that the public authority has an information statement;

  Under Section 5 of the Public Access to Information Act 2010, every public authority\(^1\) in Bermuda must produce an information statement.

- The purposes and aims of the information scheme, and what the public authority hopes to achieve through the information statement;

  This statement aims to make it easy to access key information about the (your department's) activities.

- Summary of what is in the information statement;

  - Who we are and what we do
  - What we spend and how we spend it
  - What our priorities are and how we are doing
  - How we make our decisions
  - Our policies and procedures
  - Lists and registers

The information provided includes: Organisational structure of the Unit; governing legislation; functions and powers; services and programmes; information held - grouped into decision making;
administrative or other record; further information (includes financial); contact details for the information officer and locations of the information statement.

\(^1\) Section 1 of the Act defines a public authority to mean an entity listed in column 1 of the Schedule.

Section C: Services and Programmes [s5(1)c]

Services:
The Tourism Authority is led by the Chief Executive Officer and consists of four divisions:

- Experience
  - This division is responsible for developing core experiences (cultural tourism, and complementary products (nautical tourism, leisure and entertainment, cruise tourism and eco-tourism) and service offerings to increase the overall attractiveness and competitiveness of Bermuda as a tourism destination. It is also tasked with ensuring Bermuda's product and experiences meet or exceed the aspirations of our core markets.
  - Product development and commercial efforts are focused on key luxury segments, niche markets and groups and events, with the latter playing a key role in reducing seasonality.

- Sales & Marketing
  - The Sales & Marketing Division focuses on Bermuda's sales and marketing activities, to raise awareness of and demand for Bermuda as a destination. It is the guardian and messenger of the Bermuda brand. The Sales and Marketing Division also works to raise hotel occupancies and overall tourism revenue, reduce seasonality and thus improve employment in the industry. Efforts are focused in geographical areas with the most return on investment, and where airlift exists. The division holds responsibility for the BTA’s sports tourism strategy and support of business/meetings, incentives, and conferences. Sales & Marketing looks for the most cost effective and efficient means to deliver Bermuda's brand message to the identified markets, encouraging them to travel to Bermuda.

- Operations
  - The Operations Division is responsible for human resources, finance and accounting, real estate management, legal, and contracting. They handle management and financial reporting, establish corporate policies and procedures and oversee all corporate functions.
  - Additionally, the division has the responsibility for:
    - National Service Training Standards
    - On-island communications
    - Tourism appreciation initiatives
    - Stakeholder and Public Relations

- Business Intelligence & Technology
  - The Business Intelligence & Technology Division ensures that the Bermuda Tourism Authority is well informed and responsive to its market. The unit provides consumer demand and behaviour research and business intelligence to enable the development of products and sales and marketing strategies to improve the tourism industry in Bermuda. It seeks to improve understanding of the key markets, convey aspirations to the Product & Experience Division and inform Sales & Marketing of key drivers.
  - The unit collects and communicates data and tourism industry intelligence to internal departments and external parties and maintains historical tourism data.
  - The unit holds responsibility for BTA IT systems and processes and PIPA compliance Programmes:
- Experience Grant Program
- National Service Standard Certification Program
- Certified Tourism Ambassador Program
- Seasonal/Summer Student Program
