Introduction:

The purpose of the Public Access to Information Act 2010 is to:

1. give the public the right to obtain access to information held by public authorities to the greatest extent possible, subject to exceptions that are in the public interest or for the protection of the rights of others;

2. increase transparency, and eliminate unnecessary secrecy, with regard to information held by public authorities;

3. increase the accountability of public authorities;

4. inform the public about the activities of public authorities, including the manner in which they make decisions; and

5. have more information placed in the public domain as a matter of routine.

This statement provides an overview of information on the Office of Project Management and Procurement and includes the following:

1. Organizational structure;

2. The general functions of the Department;

3. Mission Statement;

4. List of Legislative Acts and Regulations defining the Department’s scope of operations and responsibility; and

Legislation:
- Public Treasury (Administration and Payments) Act 1969
- Good Governance Act 2011
- Good Governance Act 2012

SECTION B : 1) Functions, powers, duties of the Authority [s. 5(1)b]

Mission Statement:
We provide oversight and guidance in project management and procurement to ensure transparency and value for money.

Principal Purposes and Functions:
The Office of Project Management and Procurement was established for the following principal purposes—
- to provide professional, qualified procurement expertise and advice to Government;
- to ensure that there is no bias in the awarding of Government contracts;
to identify and apply performance measures to ensure that Government obtains value for money;

to ensure that best practices are adhered to in the oversight of capital projects; and to advise on, guide and support the development of, and adherence to, procurement regulations, policy and best practice.

The Director of the Office of Project Management and Procurement has the following functions—

- oversight of all Government procurement, including contracts and all pre-contract negotiations, such as requests for proposal, invitations to tender and the obtaining of quotations and estimates;

- oversight of all capital projects for Government;

- handling of complaints relating to the awarding of Government contracts; and

- such other functions as may be conferred under any other enactment or by the responsible Minister.

Department Objectives:

- Compliance — Assure compliance of project and procurement activities to the statutory, regulatory requirements, applicable rules, policies and procedures for projects and procurement.

- Inclusion — (Local Benefits) — Assure local benefits are captured in the relevant capital projects, procurement and contracts.

- Reform — Reform project management, procurement, contract and compliance.

- Contracts — Facilitate improved project, procurement and contract management.

- Accessibility — Improve accessibility to Bermudian owned businesses, local suppliers, micro and small and medium enterprises.

Reporting Framework:

- Annual Report

Decision Making:

The Director of the Office of Project Management and Procurement is authorised under the Public Treasury (Administration and Payments) Act 1969 to take steps he considers necessary to ensure that the Code of Practice for Project Management and Procurement is followed by all public officers concerned with obtaining goods and services for the Government. The Code of Practice provides guidance for the Director when he makes decisions with respect to:
(i) oversight of Government procurement, including contracts and pre-contract negotiations, such as requests for proposal, invitations to tender and obtaining quotations and estimates;

(ii) oversight of capital projects for the Government; and

(iii) handling complaints that relate to the awarding of Government contracts.
