4 (1) Notwithstanding the purpose for which premises were let, in determining the nature of the tenancy for the purposes of this Act, regard shall be had to the following:

- (a) in any agreement in writing between a landlord and tenant, a term that the premises shall be used for a specified purpose shall be prima facie evidence that the premises are being used for such purpose;
- (b) notwithstanding any evidence as to whether premises were originally let as a dwelling or not, where such premises are being used primarily for another purpose, they shall be deemed to have been let for that other purpose;

vant to the dispute, apply in the specified form to the Commissioner for his certificate as to the primary user of the premises.

(3) Where an application under subsection (2) is made to the Commissioner, he shall inspect the premises, and may —

(a) for a review of a certificate of the Commissioner;

(b) for a determination where the Commissioner has declined to issue his certificate; or the tenant has departed from the premises and such wife was residing in the premises at the time of his departure and has continued so to reside, and pays or tenders the rent thereof, and, for the purposes of this Act, references to the tenant shall, where applicable, be deemed to include a reference to such widow, widower, mother, father, child or wife and the tenancy shall be deemed to continue in existence notwithstanding the death of the tenant and such widow, widower, mother, father, child or wife, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be the assignee of the tenant's rights and obligations under the tenancy.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), in the event of there being any dispute as to the person entitled to the benefits and protection afforded by this Act, the person so entitled shall be —

- (a) the person mutually agreed to be so entitled between the landlord and other persons so entitled, and where any person so entitled has continued to pay the rent due under the tenancy for a period of six months after the death of the tenant without any other person so entitled notifying the landlord of his entitlement, such agreement in favour of such person paying the rent shall be deemed to subsist;
- (b) in the absence of any such agreement the rights of the persons so entitled shall take precedence in the order set out in the said paragraph (a) and, where there is more than one person in the category, preference shall be given to the elder, although any person may waive his rights under this section and, in such a case, his rights to the tenancy shall pass to the person next entitled.

(3) A licence issued under this section shall be deemed to be forthwith revoked by operation of law where the premises are let or sub-let for more than an aggregate of six months in any consecutive period of twelve months, being a period subsequent to the issue of the licence, to any person who is ordinarily resident, or who is employed, in Bermuda.

PART II

CONTINUATION AND TERMINATION OF TENANCIES

Continuation of tenancies

7 (1) Save as is provided in section 8, no tenancy existing on 1 July 1978, or which may thereafter subsist, shall terminate during the continuance in force of this Act:

Provided that, subject to any contrary agreement between the landlord and the tenant, this section shall not apply to any tenancy of an apartment in a building a part of which is occupied by the owner where such a building does not comprise more than 3 living units and such tenancy commences after 30 June 1983; and for the purpose of this proviso "living unit" means a part of a building so constructed or divided as to be occupied as a complete dwelling area.

(2) Save as is provided in section 5, a tenancy shall not by virtue of this Act continue in existence after any change in the identity of the landlord or tenant which would terminate such tenancy in law; but for the purposes of this Act a tenancy shall be deemed to continue in existence notwithstanding any change in the rent payable.

(3) In every tenancy there shall, in the absence of any express covenant or condition, be implied a covenant to pay rent on the due date and a condition for forfeiture for non-payment within 15 days of such date.

Grounds for termination of tenancies

8 (1) A tenancy shall terminate where —

- (a) vacant possession is delivered up;
- (b) the landlord determines the tenancy for failure to pay rent or for the breach of any other covenant or condition which under any provision of law, would have been a cause of forfeiture or termination;

- (c) a notice to quit given under subsection (2) or (6) or an order made under section 9(3) takes effect;
- (d) in the case of a sub-tenancy, the tenancy out of which the sub-tenancy was created is itself terminated:

Provided that upon such termination this Act shall apply to any tenancy thereupon arising by operation of law.

(2) A notice to quit may be served and shall, subject to section 9, take effect as if this Act had not been enacted where in such notice the landlord or principal tenant specifies—

- (a) that he requires possession for use as a dwelling by himself, his mother, his father, or any child or grand-child of his over the age of twenty-one years or married;
- (b) his intention of rebuilding the premises or of carrying out therein renovations of a major character.

(3) Where a notice to quit is served under subsection (2) and in addition is displayed for 3 successive days upon the main door or entrance of the premises affected, such notice to quit shall take effect also on any sub-tenancies created under the tenancy to which it relates.

(4) In this section, "renovations of a major character" means renovations which are extensive and which are of such a nature either that they cannot reasonably be carried out with the tenant in occupation or that it would cause undue hardship to the landlord, by reason of the additional expense, if the tenant remained in occupation while the renovations are carried out.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (2) "landlord" includes a person —

- (a) who receives the rents, issues and profits of any premises as a beneficiary under a trust or settlement if—
 - (i) he receives fifty-one per centum or more of such rents, issues and profits; or
 - (ii) he can establish that he has, subject to the tenancy, the right to occupy and continue to occupy the premises as a dwelling to the exclusion of all other such beneficiaries and that such right cannot be revoked without his consent;
- (b) who possesses an interest in any premises (not being a future estate) acquired as a legacy and he can establish that he has, subject to the tenancy, the right to occupy and continue to occupy the premises as a dwelling to the exclusion of all other persons with a like interest in the premises.

RENT INCREASES (DOMESTIC PREMISES) CONTROL ACT

(6) A notice to quit may be served and shall, subject to section 10, take effect as if this Act had not been enacted where in such notice the landlord or principal tenant specifies that the tenant is an undesirable tenant.

Proceedings on service of notice to quit under section 8(2)

9 (1) A notice to quit given under section 8(2) shall not be valid unless there is set out therein the substance of the provisions of subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Within 14 days of service of a notice to quit under section 8(2) any tenant of the premises affected by the notice to quit may serve a counter notice in the specified form on the landlord or principal tenant, as the case may be, disputing the right of the landlord or principal tenant to serve notice to quit.

(3) Within 14 days of the receipt of a counter notice under subsection (2) the landlord or principal tenant, as the case may be, may apply to the court for an order for possession of the premises to which such notice relates and if he does not so apply the notice to quit shall be void.

(4) Where the landlord or principal tenant, as the case may be, satisfies the court that he is entitled to possession on the ground specified in the notice to quit, the court shall make an order for possession which shall take effect on such date as the court may order but not earlier than the date on which the notice to quit would have taken effect nor later than three months from the date of such order; and at the hearing of such an application the court may order the payment of rent or mesne profits:

Provided that no order shall be made unless the court is satisfied that the landlord bona fide requires the premises on the grounds specified by him.

(5) Where a court makes an order for possession under subsection (4), the court may if it thinks fit, grant to the tenant an option in such terms as the court may determine, to take a new tenancy of the premises on terms similar to the tenancy which has been terminated if—

(a) in the case where the order for possession was given on the grounds specified in section 8(2)(a) the dwelling is not, within a reasonable period thereafter used, or ceases to be used, as a dwelling by any of the persons specified in that paragraph;

(b) in the case where the order for possession was given on the grounds specified in section 8(2)(b) the premises are not rebuilt or renovated within such time as the court may determine as a reasonable time.

(6) The court may, as a condition precedent to making an order under subsection (4), require the landlord to give security to the tenant in such manner and in such amount as the court may determine, with provision for the forfeiture to the tenant of such amount in the circumstances specified in subsection (5)(a) or (b).

Proceedings on service of notice to quit under section 8(6)

10 (1) A landlord may serve on the tenant a notice to quit on the grounds that he is an undesirable tenant:

Provided that a notice shall not be served under this subsection unless the landlord has given to the tenant in writing an opportunity to remedy the matter complained of and the tenant has failed to do so.

(2) The notice to quit served under subsection (1) shall specify the grounds on which the landlord considers the tenant to be undesirable.

(3) Where the tenant disputes the allegation contained in the notice to quit, he shall do so in writing within 14 days of receiving the notice and he may submit such explanation as he thinks fit, and thereupon the landlord shall send copies of the notice to quit and of the tenant's reply to the Rent Commissioner, together with a request that a date be fixed for a hearing before the Tribunal.

(4) A Tribunal to be called the Rent Increases Arbitration Tribunal and consisting of the Commissioner and two members of the Panel, shall hear evidence in a summary way and adjudicate on the dispute between the landlord and the tenant.

(5) If the Tribunal are satisfied that the tenant is an undesirable tenant within the meaning of this Part they may —

(a) confirm the notice to quit and, where necessary, extend the time specified in the notice; or

1978

- (b) if the circumstances so warrant, order the tenant to remedy the matter complained of within a given period, and suspend the operation of the notice for that period, and if they are not satisfied that he is an undesirable tenant, shall cancel the notice to quit.

- (6) The decision of the Tribunal shall be final.

(7) For the purposes of this Part "undesirable tenant" means a tenant who —

- (a) uses the premises for any illegal purpose; or
- (b) persistently admits to the premises any person of bad character; or
- (c) causes unnecessary annoyance, nuisance, disturbance, inconvenience or damage to the landlord or his property or to any other person or the property of that person occupying the same building as the tenant or any building adjacent to it; or
- (d) in breach of his agreement, is persistently in arrears in the payment of his rent for periods of not less than two weeks and at the time of service upon him of the notice to quit his rent is in arrears for not less than two months.

Part II not to apply to certain tenancies

11 (1) This Part shall not apply to a tenancy —

- (a) where the landlord is the employer and the tenant is the employee in possession of the premises in accordance with the terms and conditions of his employment or by reason of or in consequence of his employment; or
- (b) of premises ordinarily used by a landlord to house his employees during a period when they are not being so used if such tenancy is a tenancy which has been authorized by the Commissioner and the landlord has complied with the terms of such authorization.

(2) An authorization given by the Commissioner for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) shall be in such form, and shall be for such period, and subject to such conditions, as the Commissioner may determine.

PART III

INCREASES IN RENTS

Effect of Part III

12 No rent payable under any tenancy in being on 1 July 1978, or which may thereafter subsist, shall be increased after that date save in accordance with this Part; and any increase which is not made in accordance with this Part shall be irrecoverable by the landlord.

Increase in rent by agreement with tenant

13 (1) Where an increase in rent is agreed between a landlord and tenant, the landlord shall lodge a notice thereof in the specified form in triplicate with the Commissioner.

(2) Where a notice is lodged with the Commissioner under subsection (1), he shall record the agreement concerning the increase in rent and shall endorse, free of charge, on two copies of the notice a statement to that effect and shall return one copy to the Landlord and one copy to the tenant.

(3) Rent at the increased rate shall not be recoverable save where the landlord is in possession of a copy of a notice endorsed by the Commissioner under subsection (2), but any rent paid under a lawful agreement shall be irrecoverable by the tenant, whether or not the landlord is in possession of such a copy.

(4) It shall be unlawful for any landlord to require, as a condition of the renewal of any tenancy or as a condition of not exercising a right to terminate any tenancy, the agreement of the tenant to any increase of rent for the purposes of this section, and any purported agreement in contravention of this subsection shall be void.

(5) If the Commissioner has reason to believe that an agreement is void under subsection (4) he may refuse to make an endorsement under subsection (3) until and unless he is satisfied that the agreement is not void.

(6) The Commissioner shall not endorse an agreement under subsection (2) —

- (a) where the agreement is lodged within six months after the date on which the tenant entered into possession of the premises; or
- (b) where the agreement is unlawful.

1978

(7) The Commissioner may refuse to make an endorsement under subsection (2) where the agreement has retrospective effect.

(8) Before endorsing an agreement under subsection (2) the Commissioner may make such enquiries in writing as he thinks fit to satisfy himself that there is no infringement of this Act and that the tenant is aware of his rights under this Act; and he shall in writing notify the landlord of such enquiries.

Application for increase in rent

14 (1) Subject to section 23, a landlord may apply for an increase in rent by sending a notice in the specified form in duplicate to the Commissioner.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall specify the increase desired by the landlord.

(3) Upon receipt of an application under subsection (1) the Commissioner shall serve a copy thereof on the tenant.

(4) Within 14 days of service on him of a notice under subsection (3) the tenant may send his comments thereon in writing to the Commissioner.

Grant of certificate

15 (1) Where a landlord applies for an increase in rent under section 14, the Commissioner, on receipt of the comments of the tenant under section 14(4) or after one month from the service of a copy of the application on the tenant in accordance with section 14(3), whichever is the sooner, may —

(a) if satisfied that an increase in rent would be reasonable in the circumstances of the tenancy, issue free of charge and serve on the landlord and on the tenant certificates in the specified form stating a fair increase which shall not exceed the increase specified in the application under section 14; or

(b) if not satisfied that an increase in rent would be reasonable in the circumstances of the tenancy, issue free of charge and serve on the landlord and on the tenant certificates in the specified form to that effect, and he may endorse on the certificates such comments as he may think proper relating to such application.

(2) The Commissioner shall determine any application and any dispute of fact arising out of an application in an informal and summary manner.

(3) The landlord or the tenant may within 7 days of the service upon him of a certificate issued under subsection (1)(a) or (b) require the Commissioner to state his reasons for issuing such certificate.

Review of Commissioner's initial certificate

16 (1) The landlord or the tenant may within 14 days of the service on him of the certificate, in accordance with section 15, apply by notice in the specified form to the Commissioner for a review of the certificate issued by him under section 15 (hereafter in this Part referred to as "the initial certificate").

(2) On receipt of an application under subsection (1) and upon payment of the reviewing fee by the applicant, the Commissioner shall review the initial certificate and shall for that purpose consult with the Panel.

(3) Having reviewed the initial certificate the Commissioner may —

- (a) confirm the refusal to award any increase; or
- (b) confirm the increase in rent stated in the initial certificate; or
- (c) vary or set aside the increase in rent stated in the initial certificate; or
- (d) if an increase is refused in the initial certificate, award such increase in rent as he considers fair in the circumstances of the tenancy, and shall issue free of charge and serve on the landlord and on the tenant certificates specifying his decision:

Provided that no increase shall exceed that specified in the application under section 14.

(4) The Commissioner shall endorse on any certificate issued under subsection (3) —

- (a) a statement that it is in substitution for the initial certificate; and
- (b) a note stating whether the Panel concur in the issue of the certificate or not, and, if they do not, the substance of the disagreement, and he may further include such additional comments as he may think proper relating to such review.

RENT INCREASES (DOMESTIC PREMISES) CONTROL ACT 1978

(5) All proceedings on review under this section shall be held in camera.

Matters to which Commissioner shall have regard

17 In the exercise of his functions under sections 15 and 16 the Commissioner in assessing fair increases in rent —

- (a) shall have regard to the circumstances of the particular tenancy, other than the personal circumstances of the landlord or tenant; and
- (b) may consider the actual rent or recent increases in rent in tenancies of premises of a similar nature; and
- (c) shall further have regard to the generally prevailing level of rents for premises of like nature in the same area and similar areas; and
- (d) shall further have regard to such other matters, including the incidence of land tax payable, as may appear to him to be relevant in the circumstances.

Appeal to court

18 (1) The landlord or the tenant may in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed by rules made under section 35 appeal to the court against any determination by the Commissioner on review under section 16, and on any such appeal the court shall hear the matter de novo.

(2) Where a landlord appeals under subsection (1), the tenant shall be made the respondent in the appeal and where a tenant appeals under subsection (1) the landlord shall be made the respondent in the appeal.

Proceedings of appeal

19 (1) On any appeal under section 18, a certificate purporting to be issued by the Commissioner under section 16(3) shall be receivable in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence that the increase stated therein is reasonable in the circumstances of the tenancy, or that no increase is justified, as the case may be.

(2) On the hearing of an appeal under section 18 the court shall determine any facts in dispute and may further—

- (a) confirm the certificate; or
- (b) if satisfied that the increase in rent specified in the certificate is manifestly unfair or unreasonable, having regard to the matters set out in section 17 and to any determination it makes in a dispute as to facts relevant to the assessment, vary or set aside the increase; or
- (c) if the certificate confirms the refusal to award any increase in rent, and if satisfied that the confirmation is manifestly unfair or unreasonable, order such increase in rent as it considers fair, having regard to the matters set out in section 17 and to any determination it makes in a dispute as to facts relevant to the assessment:

Provided that no increase shall exceed that specified in the application under section 14.

Increase in rents of sub-tenancies when rents of tenancy increased 20 (1) Where the rent of a tenancy is increased under this Act the principal tenant may apply by notice in the specified form to the Commissioner for a certificate to be issued under subsection (2) or (3).

(2) On receipt of an application under subsection (1) the Commissioner may, save where the increase took effect under section 13, serve on the principal tenant and on the sub-tenant certificates specifying the percentage by which the rent of the tenancy has been increased and the date on which such increase took effect.

(3) On receipt of an application under subsection (1) in respect of an increase in rent under section 13 the Commissioner may serve on the principal tenant and on the sub-tenant certificates specifying what increase in rent of the sub-tenancy would in his opinion be reasonable in the circumstances of the sub-tenancy.

(4) The rent of a sub-tenancy shall be increased —

- (a) by the percentage by which the rent of the tenancy is increased as specified in a certificate issued under subsection (2):

Provided that no increase under this paragraph shall exceed the amount expressed in money by which the rent of the tenancy (or that portion thereof which may be attributed to the premises the subject of the sub-tenancy) is increased; or

- (b) by the amount specified in a certificate issued under subsection (3).

1978

(5) The increase in rent of a sub-tenancy shall, unless otherwise agreed between the principal tenant and the sub-tenant, be deemed to take effect on the first day when rent becomes due after the expiration of —

- (a) one month from the date of the receipt of the application under section 14; or
- (b) one month from the date of the endorsement of the Commissioner on a notice under section 13, but not earlier than the date on which certificates are served under subsection (2) or (3).

(6) The Commissioner shall, when issuing certificates under subsection (2) or (3), endorse thereon a notice of the date when the increase in rent takes effect and, in the case of a certificate issued under subsection (3), he may endorse on the certificate such comments as he thinks proper relating to the application.

(7) In this section "tenancy" and "tenant" do not include "sub-tenancy" and "sub-tenant" respectively.

Increase of rent prior to reletting premises

21 (1) At any time prior to the entering into of any tenancy the landlord shall, if he wishes to let the premises at a rent which is in excess of that which would otherwise be chargeable under this Act, apply for an increase in rent by sending a notice in the specified form to the Commissioner.

(2) Where an application is made to the Commissioner under subsection (1), the Commissioner may forthwith determine the application without serving a copy of the application on any tenant in occupation of the premises under any subsisting tenancy and may, thereupon, issue his initial certificate under section 15(1); and, notwithstanding section 14, no such certificate shall be served on such tenant.

(3) An increase in rent consequent upon an application under this section shall not take effect until and unless a tenant who was not in occupation at the time of the application enters into occupation of the premises subsequent to the application and such increase shall only take effect in relation to the new tenancy.

(4) The landlord, but not the tenant, shall have the same right to apply for a review of the certificate of the Commissioner and to appeal against any determination of the Commissioner on review as he would have had had his application been made under section 14 and not this section:

Provided that the tenant shall not be a party to such review or appeal proceedings.

Day on which increase in rent takes effect

22 (1) Subject to section 21(3), where the initial certificate authorizes an increase in rent that increase shall, unless otherwise agreed between the landlord and his tenant, be deemed to take effect on the first day when rent becomes due after the expiration of a period of one month from the date of the receipt of the application under section 14.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to endorse upon the initial certificate a note of the date when the increase in rent is deemed to take effect.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3) when the rent to be paid is finally determined under this Part, the rent as so determined shall be deemed to have been payable from the time when the initial certificate of the Commissioner took effect (or would have taken effect had it granted an increase) and the difference between the rent deemed to have been payable under this subsection and the rent actually paid shall be a debt due by the landlord to the tenant or by the tenant to the landlord, as the case may be, depending on whether the rent has been over-paid or under-paid.

(5) Any debt owing by the landlord to the tenant under subsection (4) may be recovered by the tenant in accordance with section 28.

(6) Any debt owing to the landlord by the tenant under subsection (4) may, at the option of the tenant (if he is still in possession of the premises) be paid in equal instalments payable with his rent over a period commencing when such debt is first claimed by the landlord by notice in writing to the tenant and extending over a period equivalent to that which elapsed between the date when the initial certificate of the Commissioner took effect under subsection (1) and the final determination of the rent, calculated to the nearest complete week.
