Name of Public Authority: REGISTRAR OF COMPANIES

Introduction:
The purpose of the Public Access to Information Act 2010 (the “PATI Act”) is to—

a) Give the public the right to obtain access to information held by public authorities to the greatest extent possible, subject to exceptions that are in the public interest or for the protection of the rights of others;

b) Increase transparency and eliminate unnecessary secrecy, with regards to information held by public authorities;

c) Increase accountability of public authorities;

d) Inform the public about the activities of public authorities, including the manner in which they make decisions; and

  e) Have more information placed in the public domain as a matter of routine.

Every public authority is required to have an information statement under this Act. This information statement provides the public a description of the Registrar of Companies and its functions and structures, a summary of services and descriptions of the classes of records held. Brief summaries of administrative manuals, policies and rules and guidelines are also provided.

Under the Act, Bermudians and Bermuda residents have the right to request and have access to any record held by a public authority, other than an exempt record. Some records fall within Part 4 of the Act, such as information received in confidence pursuant to Section 26 and information related to the deliberative process pursuant to Section 29. Therefore, not all records can be accessed. This information statement clarifies these categories of information where required.

Section B: 1) Functions, powers, duties of the Authority [s5(1)b]

The Department is responsible for the registration, inspection, compliance and control of local and international companies, the collection of company taxes, the administration of companies winding up and of personal bankruptcies and the provision of public advisory and search facilities.

The method used by the authority to make decisions:

The Registrar of Companies relies on legislation to make informed decisions and action. The Registrar issues guidance notes to the industry setting out changes in procedure and policy. In cases where decisions and actions have a significant impact on industry, especially on regulated industries (e.g. telecommunications, insurance, reinsurance, tourism etc.), the Registrar of Companies seeks direction from the Ministry of Finance and from the respective regulatory authorities governing such industries.

Mission Statements of the Public Authority:

Preamble
Bermuda’s international and domestic businesses (“the industry”) are major contributors to Bermuda’s economy. The Registrar of Companies Department plays a significant role in the management and daily operation of the industry and therefore has a responsibility to all Bermudians for the industry’s success.

Purpose
The Registrar of Companies Department is committed to the continued success of the industry, especially considering the mounting challenges from our competitors and increasing scrutiny from global regulatory bodies (EU, OECD, IMF, FATF, etc.). Accordingly, we are committed to the sound regulation of the industry and the delivery of efficient and effective service, emphasizing a user-centered approach.

Values
The Registrar of Companies Department is committed to maintaining an organizational culture of continual improvement, especially in the areas of: public and inter-personal relations; professional development for staff and the use of computer technology.

The annual Budget Brief formally submitted to the Legislature outlines spending and revenue earned and collected by the Department for the year ended and provides reasonable projections of the Department’s cost for the next budget year.
